TRANSCRIPT LEGEND

FERPA: The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (1974) (FERPA) prohibits the release of transcript information to a third party without the written consent of the student, subject to exceptions provided by law.

Accreditation: California Intercontinental University is approved by the Accrediting Commission of the Distance Education Accrediting Commission (DEAC) that is listed by the U.S. Department of Education as a nationally recognized accreditation agency and as a recognized member of the Council for higher Education (CHEA).

State Approval: California Intercontinental University is approved by the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education (BPPE) of the State of California Department of Consumer Affairs as a private postsecondary degree-granting institution of California.

Academic Calendar: California Intercontinental University operates on a semester/term system which has eight (8), six (6) week terms of distance education and learning. Three (3) terms constitute a semester. Six (6) terms constitute an academic year and there are eight (8) terms in a calendar year.

Grading System: A standard grading system is used for both undergraduate and graduate programs to calculate a student's grade point average. Beginning Term 1 of 2016 (January 4, 2016), California Intercontinental University (CIU) adopted a "Plus / Minus" letter grade scale across the University.

Grade Point Average: Grade Point Average is computed by dividing the number of grade quality points earned by the number of units attempted. GPA is calculated for each term and semester.

Transfer Credit: California Intercontinental University may accept Transfer Credits (TC) to meet existing program course requirements. The award of transfer credits for courses is based on similar titles, contents, and grades that were awarded by an institution accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by the Secretary of Education of the U.S. Department of Education and an institutional member for CHEA. Traditionally, the ward of transfer credit is at the discretion of the accepting educational institution.
